About Law Day:

In 1958, President Dwight D. Eisenhower designated May 1st as Law Day, which is meant to celebrate and strengthen the American heritage of liberty, justice, and equality under the law. The 2013 Law Day theme is “Realizing the Dream: Equality for All,” which celebrates the 50th anniversary of Martin Luther King Jr.’s “I Have a Dream” speech and the 150th anniversary of the Emancipation Proclamation. For more information about Law Day, visit www.lawday.org.

The State Library of Arizona, located in the State Capitol, is a research library open to the public, Monday-Friday, 8am-5pm. The Library contains special collections of materials related to Law, Genealogy (Family History), and Government Information (State and Federal).
